

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

We already have so little choice in the media; the major networks are clones of each other and censor themselves quite heavily. Don't further degrade the public's right to gain a wide range of opinions and analysis. Thank you.
